

Our Daily Bread

Sliced Thin by The Editor

Alex. H. Washburn

The ECA Gets Out

a New Kind of Dream Book

Certainly I didn't send for it, but a packet of travel literature arrived at my desk this week. It's from the Economic Co-operation Administration, and a quick glance gave me pause. Later on I looked over the enclosed pamphlets rather thoroughly. They tell me the ECA is plugging:

Automobile tours of Europe in drive-em-yourself cars.

Cinco, sail and motor-boat tours of Europe's inland waterways.

And the conventional guided tours in which eager-beavers follow the leader through old castles and up high mountains, while the rest of the party hunt up the hotel bar.

Being an habitude of American garages since before automobiles had self-starters, I was fascinated by what the pamphlet on European U-drive-em-hires had to say about the cost of automobile hire on the continent.

Take France, for instance. It has the most complete U-drive-it system outside America. You rent a car by the day, week, or month, the fee including all insurance ($100 deductible for collision). Actual fees are reasonable, but the deposit—returnable when you surrender the car—is $300. You pay for the gasoline yourself.

I am using the word "car" advisedly. The French schedule starts off with a machine that's a full jump behind a respectable American motorcycle. It's the Renault 4-horsepower. The rent schedule on this one is: $8 per day for 60 kilometers (38 miles); $33.20 per week for 420 kilometers (263 miles); and $136.50 per month for 1,800 kilometers (1,125 miles). Extra kilometers (5/8 mile) above the stated allowance cost 5 cents each.

The schedule on a Citroen legere (that's the jallipy of France) begins at $7 a day.

The Peugeot 203 begins at $8.25. The 15-horsepower Ford-Valet (Continental Ford) costs $10.75 a day.

The standard American Chevrolet starts at $12.

And the standard American Ford begins at $13.

The 100 per cent higher daily charge for the big American cars is required because the popular European models are hardly more than motorcycle engines in a light chassis. However, gasoline, which I find quoted in the Netherlands report at 36 cents a gallon, is a factor favoring the small-horsepower vehicles—everywhere on the continent.

An international driver's license is required, but this is issued to anyone holding a U. S. license.

Personally I'd rather see more of Mexico and Canada, but one of my brothers rattled around France years ago in a miniature Citroen. It wasn't luxurious, but he said it was bruising fun.

Just to show you I'm not making this up from thin air I'm going to give you the names of the pamphlets. Write to: Information Division, Economic Co-operation Administration, 800 Connecticut Ave., Washington 25, D. C., for the following:

"Drive Yourself in ERP Countries."

"European Inland Waterways."

"Human Interest Tours."

"Tips for Your Trip."

Record Price Paid at Auction Sale

Little Rock, Oct. 5 (AP)—An average price of $708, a record high, was paid for 57 animals at the Arkansas Hereford Association's annual auction here yesterday.

The old record was $506 set last year.

E. M. Reynolds, association secretary, credited the close screening of stock, rather than inflation, for the major portion of the increase.

For Miss Mixer 20th a female calving Jan. 22, 1950, brought the sale's top price of $1,875. She was purchased by J. M. Counts of Counsell Hereford Farm, Elaine, Ark., from Flat Creek ranch, Denton, Ark.

Counsell paid out $6,700 for five females, which included four top sellers.

Glenn Wallace of Glencrest farms, Nashville, Ark., bid $1,375 to buy the top selling bull, King Helmsman 38th consigned by Kingford farm, Siloam Springs.

Arch Smith of Texarkana was the heaviest purchaser from the 23 bulls sold. He paid $5,295 for six bulls.

Lang to Head State Foresters

Charleston, S. C., Oct. 5 (AP)—Fred H. Lang, Arkansas forestry director, has been elected president of the association of State Foresters. Lang was chosen last night at the closing session of the organization's 29th annual convention here. He succeeds DeWitt Nelson of Sacramento, Calif.

KING IMPROVING

London, Oct. 5 (AP)—King George VI continues to improve after his lung operation which took place Sept. 23.

The 13th medical bulletin issued from Buckingham Palace since the operation said simply today: "The king's improvement continues."

Housewives Turn to Pork, Fish to Fight Prices

Chicago, Oct. 5 (AP)—The hike in beef prices has turned the eyes of many housewives to pork, poultry and fish.

That was brought out today in an Associated Press survey of major cities across the nation.

The survey also raised—but did not answer—the question of whether the long climb in general prices had left consumers with a lowered resistance.

The survey indicated there was little complaining in the first few days of trade under the new beef ceilings.

Butchers in Washington, D. C., for instance, reported very little grumbling and few comments of any kind from customers. One meat cutter there philosophized:

"High prices undoubtedly have had a numbing effect."

One of the biggest chains in New York City noted increased price resistance only in the poorer neighborhoods.

"When people want beef they will pay the price until it gets too high, and then they will sacrifice on other grocery items to buy beef," said an Indianapolis butcher.

Supplies of beef in retail outlets in the 12 large cities that were checked ranged from scarce to ample.

But there is plenty of other main-dish food a hand. The decline in the supply of beef coincides with the start of the fall season of plenty in pork.

Washington, D. C., reported a heavy run on poultry, fish and pork.

There were similar trends in some other communities.

A woman buying for a family of five in Seattle, Wash., scanned the price lists and said:

"Little by little we are being driven to a pork diet."

A meat market operator in an exclusive residential area of Denver summed up consumer reaction this way:

"Most women don't know the prices they used to pay for meat in comparison with what they're paying now. But they have been reading in the newspapers—and hearing on the radio that beef prices are high."

"So they are trying to buy less beef. We never have sold as much pork, poultry and fish as we are now."

The office of price stabilization (OPS) new order permitted retailers to change their beef prices Monday. It was an up-and-down adjustment. The changes ranged from a reduction of 20 cents a pound on some choice (high) grades to a hike of as much as 29 cents a pound on some utility (low) grades.

But, over-all, it increased beef prices an average of 1 1/2 to two cents a pound at the butcher's counter.

U. S. department of agriculture meat experts say the high prices reflect a demand that is greater than the supply.

The American Meat Institute (AMI), trade organization of packers, says the number of cattle delivered to 12 major livestock markets in the last four months showed a drop of 12 per cent over the number received in the corresponding period of 1950.

It adds that there was a decrease of 20 per cent in the same period in the number of beef animals slaughtered at 95 leading beef-processing plants.

"These plants," said an AMI spokesman, "were unable to buy more beef animals without running the risk of violating OPS ceiling regulations."

The cattle population of farms has been growing, but the human population has been growing faster.

All the factors involved indicate there will be some change in buying habits. Advertisement of six retail organizations in Chicago provided an interesting pattern. The items listed for this week's shoppers ranged in numbers as follows: Pork 42, poultry 22, fish 9, lamb 4, and beef only 1.

Acquitted of Murder Charge
Newport, Oct. 5 (AP)—A Jackson county circuit court jury has acquitted Guthrie of first degree murder in the death of a neighbor.

Guthrie, 36, a farmer, had been accused of the shotgun slaying of William Western, 50, at Western's home in the Denmark community, in June 1950.

Guthrie said he shot Western in self defense, adding that the shooting followed arguments between "our wives," our children and our dogs.

FAMILY BIRTHS
Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 5 (AP)—Two sisters-in-law who live on the same block and shared the same hospital room gave birth to their babies—a total of three—on the same day.

Mrs. Alan A. Krull and Mrs. William H. Durand, both of Durand Snyder, gave birth to their girls Wednesday. Mrs. Krull's girl was twins.

Trust and Luck are villages with in three miles of each other in North Carolina.

Cale Parents Name Chairmen at PTA Meeting

The Cale P.T.A. met Thursday, Oct. 4, in the High School building and Mrs. Bonnie Barham, president presided over a short business meeting.

The following committee chairmen were appointed: Mrs. Elizabeth Fuller, program chairman; Mrs. Archie Stovall, membership chairman; Mrs. F. H. Gilbert, reporter; and Mrs. Carl Glass, magazine chairman. It was voted to hold the regular P.T.A. meeting on the first Thursday of each month.

Mrs. C. V. Garrett was elected secretary-treasurer to fill the vacancy made by Mrs. Oliver's resignation. It was also voted to invite the Prescott Kiwanis Club to Cale for a dinner and program, the date to be set later after the club has been contacted.

Security Ban Already Big Controversy

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Oct. 5 (AP)—President Truman's order to government agencies not to disclose "to potential enemies information harmful to the security of the United States" is hardly more than a week old. He issued it Sept. 25.

But it already is knee-deep in controversy and explanations, and as time goes on it gets more tangled. For example, some of the White House explanations have had to be re-explained.

Ordinarily the defense and state departments are the two big agencies dealing in information which, if divulged, might help Russia and harm us. They have a security system—that is, arrangements for keeping certain information secret.

What is perhaps less generally known is that some other agencies, which might not at first glance seem to have dealings in security problems at all, have and have had for some time security programs of their own.

Two examples are the agriculture and commerce departments. For instance, while the defense department may be working out a program for bacteriological warfare, if that becomes necessary, the agriculture department may have a hand in that same program in so far as farm animals are concerned.

To prevent public disclosure of information which its officials considered a matter of security, the agriculture department as long as 18 months ago set up a security system of its own and appointed officials to handle it.

Which means that certain information in the agriculture department is marked secret or confidential and is not revealed to the public.

When he issued his order last week, President Truman said it provides "for the first time uniform standards for classifying and protecting security information throughout all the executive branch of that government." That means every government agency.

At the same time he warned that his order prohibited government employees from withholding an information which was non-security information which was non-security information around the country.

The managing editors of Associated Press newspapers were meeting in San Francisco the day the order came out. They studied it carefully and then condemned it in a resolution, calling it a "dangerous instrument of suppression" which extends "the cloak of military secrecy to the civilian establishments of the government."

They condemned it on a number of grounds. For example: They said they didn't think the President had shown such a sweeping order, permitting concealment of information, was necessary if it had been issued without any chance for discussion by the public.

Perhaps the two main objections of the editors to the order can be summed up this way:

1. It opens the doors to wide news censorship in peacetime, a dangerous step in a society like this where the people have a right to information.

2. The order is so loose it permits all kinds of government employees to conceal their mistakes by slipping a "secret" label on material which isn't of a security nature at all.

(No newsman, under the order, could be punished for publishing information obtained from a civilian agency even though it was marked secret.)

But yesterday Mr. Truman told a news conference publishers have a responsibility not to publish information which might help an enemy even if it was cleared as all right for publication by a government agency.

This spread confusion, for under that reasoning how would anyone ever know what was safe to publish if he should have to hesitate to publish what a qualified official said he could publish?

Trust and Luck are villages with in three miles of each other in North Carolina.

House Leaders to Push Change in Control Law

Washington, Oct. 5 (AP)—House leaders today planned to push passage of a bill changing the price control law provision denounced by President Truman as "the terrible Capchert amendment."

The senate yesterday passed the compromise measure 49 to 21 over the objections of Senator Capchert (R-Ind.), one of the authors of the controversial amendment which permits sellers to pass on to consumers virtually all cost increases occurring between the start of the Korean war and last July 26.

The house leadership had said it would do nothing about this and three other modifications in the controls law asked by Mr. Truman until the senate acted first.

Having voted to go part of the way toward meeting Mr. Truman's requests on the Capchert amendment, the senate next week will take up two other points raised by the President.

They are bills which would: (1) Permit re-imposition of slaughter quotas on packing plants and (2) Repeat the section of the controls law placing strict import curbs on fats, oils and dairy products.

The fourth request of Mr. Truman, repeal of the amendment sponsored by Rep. Herlong (D-Fla.), to permit wholesalers and retailers historic markups in fixing price ceilings, may get some action in the house.

Chairman Maybank (D-SC) of the senate banking committee said his group would not consider the bill on the Herlong amendment because it originated in the house.

Mr. Truman asked congress to repeal the Capchert amendment, tacked on to the bill extending price, wage and rent controls signed reluctantly by the President last July 31.

The compromise measure passed yesterday changes the formula for deciding price increases. It would require that labor, material and transportation costs be taken into account in fixing price ceilings. It also would permit reasonable allowances for other costs.

District Director of PTAs to Meet With Cale Group

Mrs. J. A. Oswalt, district director of P. T. A. Information Service will conduct a "School of Information" at Cale High School Home Ec cottage on Thursday, Oct. 11.

The meeting has been arranged by Mrs. C. V. Garrett of Cale who is County Council President.

The following program will be given: Devotional, Mrs. Lynn Tarkenton; Address, Mr. J. Bryan Ritchie; Program of Information, Mrs. Oswalt. A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon.

Regular Singing

A regular monthly singing will be held at Unity Baptist Church Sunday at 2 p. m. The public is invited.

By HAL BOYLE
Yankee Stadium Oct. 5 (AP)—I have just cheated 10,000,000 American kids.

I used up a seat in a ball park that ought to have gone to one of them.

All my life I wanted to see a World Series game, and now I have. And I feel just like a boy who has knocked at his girl friend's house—and found she's moved away.

Darn this world anyway. You get everything you want 25 years too late.

When I was a kid, my father, who had played a little semi-pro ball himself, was a great admirer of the New York Giants.

"Son," he used to say, "when you grow up you may take to stealing, you may break your mother's heart, and you may beat your wife in public. But promise me one thing—never sell the Giants short."

But I had a secret vice. I was a Yankee fan. And in my heart there was a shrine that said "Babe Ruth."

So when—after all these years—a friendly angel got me a ticket to the First World Series game between the Giants and the Yankees, I felt like one who is surprised by an old dream come suddenly true.

This excitement lasted through the first two innings. Then I noticed that the crowd of 65,673 was making hardly much more noise than the bystanders at a chess match. Where was their enthusiasm?

"It's always like that the first day," explained the man next to me. "The stands are full of big shots who want to brag about seeing the opening game. They don't care holler for fear of raising their blood pressure."

As the game wore on I began to feel depressed. There were some brilliant plays, and it is always satisfying to see anything done well. But it was like watching a ballet. And then I realized why I wasn't having the fun I'd looked for. I didn't really care which team won, and I didn't know the names of the players.

Those weren't the Yankees I had come to see. Somehow I guess I had subconsciously hoped that Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig would be out there, still hitting them high and far.

"Where did Ruth knock his home runs?" I asked.

"The Babe?" said my neighbor. "You never saw the Babe hit a long one? He used to drop them there in the right field bleachers. And when he swung and missed—well, he still looked as good as anybody out there today."

We talked about the old Yankees then, while the Giants finished off the modern Yankees, 5 to 1. And it was more fun talking than watching.

As the game ended I dropped by a refreshment stand and put down a dime for a hot dog.

"Whaddya want—half a one?" said the vendor.

"Twenty cents for a hot dog? Baseball has changed in lots of ways. Well, anyway the mustard is still free and tastes as good as ever. And tomorrow I'm going to buy me a record book and find out what's been going on in baseball. When the old heroes are gone you have to find new heroes—or give up the game."

But I'll always be haunted by the ghost of the one who no longer knocks them a mile in the house that Ruth built.

Nashville Scene of Regional Meet of Cancer Group

The annual fall training school for the 6th District of the American Cancer Society met at the Garner Hotel in Nashville, October 4.

Nine counties were represented and about fifty attended the meeting. Mrs. E. W. Graham, Mrs. E. P. O'Neal and Mrs. E. O. Wingfield represented Hempstead county.

Mrs. W. R. Brooksher, commander of auxiliary, of Fort Smith, William A. Stapleton, executive director, of Fort Smith, Mrs. Charlotte Layden, national director, of New York City, Mrs. Margo Bartlett, executive secretary, of Little Rock were on the program.

Plaintiff Dies in Memphis Case

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 5 (AP)—The plaintiff in a federal court damage suit died here four hours after taking a medical test needed in the litigation, attorneys said.

Howard E. Steed, 54, a Miami, Fla., railroadman, died Sept. 19 in a Baptist hospital after submitting to a pneumoencephalogram.

The process for taking fluid from the base of the brain by way of the spinal column so that part of the head can be X-rayed.

Steed had sued United Transports, Inc., for $410,000. He claimed an accident near Blackfish Lake, Ark., last year involving his car and a United Truck left him with a severe head injury.

The death certificate listed a coronary thrombosis—a blood clot at the heart—as the cause of death. But Fletcher Long of Fort Smith, Ark., Steed's attorney, said Steed apparently had no heart ailment two weeks before he died.

This, he said, was determined by a cardiogram taken during a physical examination in Miami.

Glenn M. Elliott, counsel for the trucking firm, said yesterday that Steed underwent the spinal test here after federal district Judge Harry J. Lemley had upheld defense objections against admission of the first test.

Long said his client agreed to the second test after Judge Lemley said he would refuse to admit evidence based on the Florida decision. The trial was set for hearing in Helena, Ark.

The second test was given at noon. Long said, and Steed "died before sundown."

Elliott said Steed's relatives objected to an autopsy and none was made.

Heirs of the Floridan's estate can have the case revived if they wish.

Local Soldier Is Awarded

With the 1st Cav. Div. in Korea—Pvt. Alvin Huckabee, Rt. 1 Hope has been awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge, a symbol of close-quarter fighting with the enemy, while serving with the 1st Cavalry Division in Korea.

Private Huckabee is with the 8th Cavalry Regiment's Company F.

Believes World Is All Wrong--You Usually Get What You Want About 25 Years Too Late

By HAL BOYLE
Yankee Stadium Oct. 5 (AP)—I have just cheated 10,000,000 American kids.

I used up a seat in a ball park that ought to have gone to one of them.

All my life I wanted to see a World Series game, and now I have. And I feel just like a boy who has knocked at his girl friend's house—and found she's moved away.

Darn this world anyway. You get everything you want 25 years too late.

When I was a kid, my father, who had played a little semi-pro ball himself, was a great admirer of the New York Giants.

"Son," he used to say, "when you grow up you may take to stealing, you may break your mother's heart, and you may beat your wife in public. But promise me one thing—never sell the Giants short."

But I had a secret vice. I was a Yankee fan. And in my heart there was a shrine that said "Babe Ruth."

So when—after all these years—a friendly angel got me a ticket to the First World Series game between the Giants and the Yankees, I felt like one who is surprised by an old dream come suddenly true.

This excitement lasted through the first two innings. Then I noticed that the crowd of 65,673 was making hardly much more noise than the bystanders at a chess match. Where was their enthusiasm?

"It's always like that the first day," explained the man next to me. "The stands are full of big shots who want to brag about seeing the opening game. They don't care holler for fear of raising their blood pressure."

As the game wore on I began to feel depressed. There were some brilliant plays, and it is always satisfying to see anything done well. But it was like watching a ballet. And then I realized why I wasn't having the fun I'd looked for. I didn't really care which team won, and I didn't know the names of the players.

Those weren't the Yankees I had come to see. Somehow I guess I had subconsciously hoped that Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig would be out there, still hitting them high and far.

"Where did Ruth knock his home runs?" I asked.

"The Babe?" said my neighbor. "You never saw the Babe hit a long one? He used to drop them there in the right field bleachers. And when he swung and missed—well, he still looked as good as anybody out there today."

We talked about the old Yankees then, while the Giants finished off the modern Yankees, 5 to 1. And it was more fun talking than watching.

As the game ended I dropped by a refreshment stand and put down a dime for a hot dog.

"Whaddya want—half a one?" said the vendor.

"Twenty cents for a hot dog? Baseball has changed in lots of ways. Well, anyway the mustard is still free and tastes as good as ever. And tomorrow I'm going to buy me a record book and find out what's been going on in baseball. When the old heroes are gone you have to find new heroes—or give up the game."

But I'll always be haunted by the ghost of the one who no longer knocks them a mile in the house that Ruth built.

U. S. Has New A-Weapons Ready for Use

Los Angeles, Oct. 5 (AP)—Gordon Dean, top U. S. atomic official, said today the United States has atomic weapons which can "cancel out" on the battlefield "any numerical advantage" of an enemy and that it need not hesitate or fear to use them.

Without indicating whether he had the Korean war specifically in mind, Dean said of the use of a tactical atomic weapons:

"I think that when a situation arises where in our carefully considered judgment the use of any kind of a weapon is justified, we are at the place where we should give serious consideration to the use of an atomic weapon, provided it can be used effectively from the military standpoint and that it is no more destructive than is necessary to meet the particular situation in question."

The atomic energy commission chairman presented this bold new picture of American atomic power in an address prepared for a founder's day gathering at the University of Southern California.

In it he cast aside his previous official timidity and gave broad hints of the progress in atomic weapons.

Among other things, he said: "We are entering an era where our power to wage warfare with atomic devices is so great, even in comparison with the recent past, that our fundamental concepts of what atomic warfare is and what it might mean to us must undergo revolutionary change."

"In the past most of us have thought of atomic warfare in terms of intercontinental bombers striking at the great cities and industrial heart of an enemy nation xxx. This concept of atomic warfare, while still true, is now no longer the whole truth."

"It is but one kind of atomic warfare, and there is now a new, more promising as a means of halting aggressors without the risk of destroying large parts of the world in the process."

"Because of our great technological strides, we are now entering an era when the quantities of atomic weapons available to us will be so great, and the types so varied, that we may utilize them in many different ways heretofore not possible."

This country is now at the point, he continued, where it is "able to bring to bear on the aggressor himself—at the place of his aggression—the fruits of our technological capabilities, and to meet the invading force in the field with a firepower that should cancel out any numerical advantage he might enjoy."

In saying the U. S. should not hesitate to use these tactical weapons, Dean declared the Communists' whole atomic program may be designed to "cancel out" this means of warfare and thus permit them to utilize their manpower superiority in a "master plan to achieve world domination."

U. S. possession of tactical atomic weapons, he said, "provides a real hope for peace xxx insofar as those who might be contemplating aggression understand the full import of what I am trying to say."

Dean didn't think there was danger an enemy—he did not name Russia—would make atomic attacks on U. S. cities if tactical atomic weapons were used by the U. S. on a battlefield. He said:

"I think there would be no more chance of that than there is now for I think our potential adversary fully appreciates our capability for strategic retaliation. It is this capability that he has feared all along, and it is this capability which, in my judgment, has prevented World War III."

Tactical use of atomic weapons would leave the moral responsibility of the United States unchanged, Dean said.

Oak Grove Revival to Start Sunday

The Rev. Claude Clark will start revival services October 7, at Oak Grove Methodist Church, 8 miles southeast of Hope. Services will be held nightly at 7:30.

Communion Sunday at Spring Hill

Communion service will be held Sunday, October 7, at Spring Hill Methodist church for the Spring Hill charge. The Rev. E. D. Galloway will bring the message at 11 a. m. Lunch will be spread at the noon hour. The public is invited to come and bring basket lunches.

Guernsey Juniors Elect Queen

PRESCOTT NEWS

Sunday, October 7

Young Peoples Service will be held at the Church of Nazareth Sunday at 7 p.m.

The Pioneer Fellowship of the Presbyterian Church will meet on Sunday at 5 p.m. The Youth Fellowship will meet at 6 p.m. Supper will be served by Mrs. Al Daniel and Mrs. John Dewdney.

The Young People of the Methodist Church will meet Sunday at 5 p.m. for worship, recreation and fellowship.

Classes will be held for the Young People of the Church of Christ Sunday at 6:45.

There will be a Young Peoples service at the Assembly of God Church Sunday at 7 p.m.; Men's Council 7 p.m.; W.M.C. prayer meeting 7 p.m.; children's service 7 p.m.

The Youth choir of the First Baptist Church will meet Sunday at 5 p.m. under the direction of Charles Miller. The Training Union will meet at 6:30.

Women's Circle of Presbyterian Church Meets

The Women's Circle of the Presbyterian Church met on Monday afternoon at 2:30 in the home of Mrs. B. Q. Logan with Mrs. D. L. McLean Sr. as hostess. Banquets of roses and marigolds decorated the room. The president, Mrs. T. M. Bemis, opened the meeting with a meditation and prayer from the "Presbyterian Woman."

The devotional "Do You Respect Human Life?" Based on the sixth Commandment, was given by Mrs. B. Q. Logan. She closed her talk with prayer.

The minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. Henry Moore. Reports of general officers and committees were heard. It was announced that world wide communion would be observed on October 7th, Church Paper Week is October 11-21 and October is Bible month. Group conference will convene in Ardmore on October 11th. The Work of Prayer and Self Denial for Home Missions will be observed on Monday, October 29 with an all day meeting at the church.

The Circle business was conducted by Mrs. Grace McChesney, chairman.

Mrs. Allen Goe assisted by Mrs. T. C. McLean Jr. presented the program for the afternoon on "Homestead" from the study book "Christian Patterns of Life" the meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction.

The hostesses served a delicious catered course during the social hour.

W. M. S. Install Officers

The W.M.S. of the First Baptist Church met on Monday at the church for the monthly business meeting with nineteen members present.

The meeting opened with the hymn "Jesus Calls Us". The president, Mrs. L. L. Buchanan presided and brought the devotional thought followed with prayer by Mrs. Loyce Anderson.

The following new officers were installed by Mrs. Buchanan who will serve as president. Miss Lillie Holmes, first vice president, Miss Eddie Danner, second vice president, Mrs. William Wilby, secretary, Mrs. Clifford Johnson, treasurer, Mrs. Jack Cooper, young people's director, Mrs. Roy Loomis, mission study chairman, Mrs. Thomas Buchanan, community mission, Mrs. Buster Payne, literature, Mrs. Loyce Anderson, orphanage, Mrs. Watson Wade Jr., social and flowers, Mrs. Betty Butler, hospital, Mrs. J. D. Hines, nursery circle chairman, Mr. Chas Cox, Mrs. J. T. McLean, Mrs. R. T. Murry, Mrs. Brad Bright.

The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Buchanan.

Wesleyan Service Guild Meets

The Wesleyan Service Guild of the Methodist Church met on Monday evening in the home of Mrs. W. H. Burks for the October meeting. Mrs. Bob Davis and Mrs. J. A. Eagle served as co-hostesses.

Lovely fall flowers decorated the room.

The meeting was opened with the ritual. The president, Mrs. J. A. Cole, presided and conducted the business.

Mrs. Lela Hays gave the devotional talk. She was assisted by Mrs. Verell Chamberlain and Miss Margaret Avery in giving the program on "Christian Missions and Human Rights."

Mrs. Hays offered the closing prayer.

A dainty dessert course was served to the twenty three members present.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlene Pittman spent Monday in Texarkana.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Smith III visited friends in El Dorado on Monday.

Little Miss Cynthia Arnold is recovering from a recent tonsillotomy.

Mrs. Blain Hays motored to Little Rock Monday for the day.

Mrs. Armand Cox of Long View

The Negro Community

By Helen Turner
Phone 774
Or bring items to Miss Turner at Hicks Funeral Home

Circle No. 3 will meet at the home of Mrs. Alice Adams, Tuesday night, October 9, at 7:30. All members are asked to be present.

There will be a love feast Friday night, in the basement of BeeBee Memorial C.M.E. church Sunday evening Oct. 7, at 5 p.m. sponsored by the Epworth League. Mrs. Mattie Sanders, president.

There will be an entertainment in the basement of BeeBee Memorial C.M.E. church Sunday evening Oct. 7, at 5 p.m. sponsored by the Epworth League. Mrs. Mattie Sanders, president.

Mrs. Ella Dixon, Mrs. Cannon Dixon, Herbert Dixon and Wiley Mack of Los Angeles, Calif., attended the funeral of Vera Dixon.

Wiley Mack of Los Angeles, California, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Ella Fowler, and other relatives and friends.

LONOKE BAPTIST
Rev. F. K. Powell, Pastor
9:45 a. m. Sunday School
11:00 a. m. Morning worship
6:30 p. m. B. T. U.
8:00 p. m. Evening Worship

GARRETT CHAPEL BAPTIST
Rev. F. R. Williams, Pastor
9:45 a. m. Sunday school
11 a. m. Morning worship
5 p. m. B. T. U.
8 p. m. evening worship

RISEING STAR BAPTIST
Rev. W. M. Erby, Pastor
9:45 a. m. Sunday school
11 a. m. morning worship
6 p. m. B. T. U.
8:00 p. m. evening worship

BEEBEE MEMORIAL C. M. E.
Rev. T. J. Rhone, Pastor
9:45 a. m. Sunday school
11 a. m. morning worship
6:30 p. m. Epworth League
8 p. m. Evening worship

THE CHURCH OF GOD
Rev. G. W. Dorah, Pastor
9:30 a. m. Sunday School
11:15 a. m. morning worship
6:30 p. m. W. P. W.
8:30 p. m. evening worship

BETH A. M. E. CHURCH
Rev. G. Paschal, Pastor
9:45 a. m. Sunday school
11 a. m. morning worship
6:00 p. m. A. C. E. L.
7:30 p. m. Evening worship.

CHURCH OF GOD IN CHRIST
Eld. O. N. Dennis, Pastor
9:45 a. m. Sunday school
11:15 a. m. Morning Worship
6:30 p. m. V. P. W. W.
8:30 p. m. Evening worship.

MT. ZION C. M. E. CHURCH
Rev. W. B. Miller, Pastor
9:45 a. m. Sunday school
11 a. m. morning worship
5:30 p. m. Epworth League.
8 p. m. Evening worship

is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. H. E. Davis and Mr. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Goe Jr. and children, Gail and Bill visited relatives and friends in Prescott Monday evening.

The largest trees in the United States are the Sequoias in California.

FILM WRITER WEDS

Los Angeles, Oct. 4 (AP)—William B. Hawks, film writer who once was married to Actresses Bessie Love and Virginia Walker, was married last night to Mrs. Frances Koshland Judge, San Francisco socialite.

They will return here to live after a honeymoon in Mexico.

State to Get Share From REA

Washington, Oct. 4 (AP)—Arkansas' share of $30,000,000 in rural electrification administration funds for this fiscal year will be $2,125,375 the REA has announced.

The REA said yesterday it would distribute the fund among the states in rural power loans for the fiscal year ending next June 30.

The REA said it also has $232,742,000 in loan funds may be distributed to borrowers without regard to state lines.

The word "and" is used about 46,277 times in the Bible.

James A. Garfield was assassinated on July 2, 1881.

Don't Miss "TOGGERY'S" Big October COAT and SUIT EVENT!

30.00 Values!

COATS
SUITS

- ★ Gabardines
- ★ Fitted Styles
- ★ Novelties

$18 1.80 DOWN
1.50 WEEK

Fall Colors
Zip Linings
Jeweled Trims
Beaded Trims

Buy Now!
Wear Today
Pay Later!

Your account is opened in two short minutes

A Companion Event!

Even at these drastically reduced prices, we say "Yes" to 98 out of 100 who wish to charge it!

All Sizes
9 to 52

Fall Styles!
DRESSES

from Our 14.98
and 10.98 Racks!
Slated for This Event to Just

777
INSTANT CREDIT

77c DOWN

Open Your Account

then just "add-on shoes, hats, jewelry, hose and many other items of apparel.

Charge 'Em

TOGGERY'S GUARANTEED
PROTECTION

- ★ You don't pay when you're sick.
- ★ You don't pay when out of work.
- ★ Death cancels the entire debt.

INSTANT CREDIT

THE TOGGERY SHOP

107 S. MAIN

HOPE, ARK.

PENNEY'S

ALWAYS FIRST QUALITY!

VALUES

BOY'S SPORT COATS
GABARDINE

NOT ALL SIZES — 5.00

ONLY 6 — ALL WOOL

MEN'S SUITS
25.00

BOY'S 8 OZ. BLUE
JEANS

Sanforized Shrink to 16" — 1.69

BOY'S COTTON FLANNEL
SHIRTS

Load Plaids 6 to 16 — 1.98

MEN'S 2X2 ARMY
KHAKI PANTS

SANFORIZED SHRINK — 3.98

LADIES FALL
DRESSES

Your Chance to Save — 5.90

Get Ready For Cold Weather
72 X 84

Electric Blankets
Assorted Colors — 24.75

20X26 BED
PILLOWS

90% Crushed Turkey
10% Crushed Chicken
Feathers — EACH 1.98

81 INCH HEAVY BROWN
SHEETING

55c yard

AGAIN 81X99
NATION - WIDE
SHEETS

2.39

Swappin' Time
IS HERE.
Pardner!

SOCIETY

Phone 1268 or 1269 Between 8 A. M. and 4 P. M.

Calendar

Saturday, Oct. 6
The Catholic Altar Society will have a rummage sale in front of the old Palace Theatre Saturday, October 6. Anyone having rummage please leave at the Catholic Rectory or call 1129 or 307.

The Friday Music Club will hold its annual President Day Luncheon at 12:30 Saturday, October 6.

St. Mark's Episcopal Auxiliary will have a rummage sale at the former W. O. Boone Store on East Third Street, Saturday, October 6.

There will be a special service at the First Pentecostal Church on Saturday night, October 6, with the Rev. N. J. Scott of Trenton, Tenn., as the principal speaker.

Friday, October 12
Mrs. Ramsey Garland, president of the Methodist Missionary Society in Emmet, announces that the society will sponsor a "Negro Minstrel" Friday, October 12, at 8 o'clock in the Emmet High School auditorium.

Monday, October 8
There will be a "Church-wide" Visitation Program of Methodist Women Monday afternoon, beginning in the homes at 2:30 o'clock with broadcast by Mrs. W. B. Landrum, field worker of the WSCS, of New York City, over KXAR at 3 o'clock, closing with a special program at the church at 3:30 p. m.

The Wesleyan Service Guild will meet Monday, October 8, at 7:30 with Mrs. Lawrence Martin, 1022 S. Walnut, Mrs. B. C. Hyatt is associate hostess and will be in charge of the program. All members are urged to be present, as this is the Wesleyan Guild birthday party.

Tuesday, October 9
The members of the executive board of the Jr. and Sr. High School PTA will meet at the home of Mrs. Albert Graves at 10:30 a. m. Tuesday, October 9.

The Deann Lilac Garden Club will meet on Tuesday, October 9, at 2 o'clock at the Deann School building. All members are urged to be present.

The Iris Garden Club will hold its regular monthly meeting Tuesday, October 9, at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. Owen Nix at 512 S. Bonner with Mrs. J. W. Cunningham, co-hostess.

Wednesday, October 10
The John Cain Chapter of the Daughters of American Revolution will have its regular luncheon at the Barlow Hotel at 12:30 Wednesday, October 10. Hostesses are Mrs. Roy Allison, Mrs. Lloyd Spencer, and Mrs. J. J. Battle. All dues and assessments are due this month, so all members come prepared to pay them.

Notice

The Friday Music Club President Day Luncheon has been postponed from Saturday, October 6, until Saturday, October 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Russell Honored With Picnic

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Russell of Washington, D. C., were honored with a picnic last night at Fair Park at 7 o'clock.

The hostess and hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. Kline Snyder, Mrs. Fannie Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Syvelle Burke, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Stith Davenport, Miss Mamie Bryant, and Lun Sanders. Those present for the occasion were the honorees, Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Story, Carolyn Story Bobby Story, Sheila Sharon, and Vincent Foster, Jimmy and Buddy Burke, and the hosts and hostesses.

Country Club Holds Game Night
Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Young and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin McLarty, Jr. were hostesses to game night at the Country Club Tuesday night. Brass candle sticks and a brass bowl of greenery were placed on the mantel. A brass scuttle bucket filled with gold and bronze chrysanthemums centered the large table. While the games were being played, cold drinks and candy were served throughout the evening. Cake and coffee were served during the social hour.

About thirty-five were present for the occasion. The club house will be open after the Hope-Gordon football game tonight.

Pat Cleburne Chapter Meets Thursday

The Pat Cleburne Chapter of the UDC met Thursday, October 4, at the home of Mrs. J. E. Gorin with Messrs. Jerome Smith, J. W. Strickland, and C. S. Lowthorp as co-hostesses.

The Gorin home was decorated with pink radiance roses and rose dahlia at vantage points.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. C. S. Lowthorp. The Ritual, pledge of allegiance to the Confederate flag was led by Mrs. C. A. Haynes. The minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. A. W. Martin. A short business meeting was conducted. Mrs. Fred H. Cook, who presented the program, gave a talk on "Literature of the South, Old and New." She closed her talk with an original poem by Mrs. G. T. Crews, Poet Laureate of the Chapter.

Two new members were welcomed into the chapter. They were: Mrs. George Wylie and Mrs. Dewey Camp.

At the close of the meeting, a salad plate with iced tea was served to twenty-nine members.

Coming and Going

Mrs. Frank Johnson and Mrs. Mandy Willis have returned from Fayetteville, Ark., and Salina, Kansas, where they visited their sons. While in Fayetteville, they attended the Arkansas - Arizona game.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Russell of Washington, D. C. are visiting Mrs. Russell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Story.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Foster spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Shreveport on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goff of San Antonio were Tuesday and Wednesday night guests of Mr. and

DOROTHY DIX

No Time For Dating

Dear Miss Dix: I am 32 years old, single and going with a girl 31. This is my problem. As I am one of the unfortunate fellows who has to work for a living, I am compelled to work shifts on a rotating schedule. I only have one weekend off a month. The week ends I'm working. She absolutely refuses to stay home Saturday nights. I spend all my evenings off with her, but as I don't have too many free evenings, she still goes out with other friends. This bothers me a lot because I really love her. I want to get married, but she insists on waiting until I have some money saved. She goes out with girl friends, and claims I am just plain jealous as there's no one else who means anything to her but me.

Answer: What is so "unfortunate" pray, about having to work for a living? Work is the greatest blessing we have. It should not be regarded merely as a means to an end, a way to earn money for continued existence. Rather, it is an end in itself. One of the things that lifts man to the stature he enjoys in the animal kingdom is

One Hurt in Wreck Near Fulton

James Simpson of Fulton was seriously injured about 4 a. m. today when the truck which he was driving struck a wheel and tire in the middle of Highway 67, near Fulton, and overturned. The tire and wheel had apparently been lost by a large moving transport. The vehicle driven by Simpson left the highway and overturned and was practically demolished. State policeman Louis Hilton investigated.

An Amazing Science Film Here Sunday

"The Day The Earth Stood Still." Twentieth Century-Fox's amazing new science-fiction thriller featuring the Michael Rennie, Patricia Neal and Hugh Marlowe, will open Sunday at the Saenger Theatre.

The production, a first "A" treatment given a science-fiction theme by a major studio, narrates the weird and terrifying story of the arrival in Washington, D. C. of a strange space ship bearing two visitors from another planet. "Klato," the super-human gifted with special powers, and his giant robot "Gort." Together they threaten Earth with total destruction.

"The Day The Earth Stood Still" assumes that a civilization 5000 years more advanced than ours has solved the problems of interplanetary space travel, the neutralization of electricity by remote control, the disintegration of objects by directed rays and the ability of robots to perform human tasks.

Producer Julian Blaustein and Director Robert Wise carefully selected a special cast to bring this fantasy-drama to life. They felt that the role of "Klato" should be played better by an actor not too familiar to American audiences and selected tall, dark-haired Michael Rennie, the British favorite who starred in "The 13th Letter" and appeared briefly as the Norman King in "The Black Rose."

As the war widow who understands the space visitor's motives and proceeds to assist him in his mission, tall, curvaceous Patricia Neal was given the nod. Long an established Hollywood star, Patricia is making her Twentieth Century-Fox debut in "The Day The Earth Stood Still."

Hugh Marlowe, the versatile performer of "All About Eve" and "Rawhide," rounds out the featured trio in the role of Miss Neal's self-centered fiancé.

As an added feature, noted news commentators Drew Pearson, Gabriel Heatter, H. V. Kaltenborn and Elmer Davis appear as themselves reporting to the world the arrival of the strange space ship from another civilization.

Mrs. Tully Henry. They were enroute to Chicago.

Hospital Notes

Branch Admitted: Mrs. Lola McLarty, Blevins.

Josephine Admitted: Mrs. Ben Ward, Hope; Miss Brenda Kay Embury, Hope; Mr. Ben Owen, Hope; Mrs. T. D. Nichols, Stamps.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ward announce the arrival of a daughter on October 4, 1951.

Clubs

Rocky Mound The Rocky Mound Home Demonstration club met at the home of Mrs. Alfred Bearden on Thursday, September 27, with Mrs. Bearden, president, presiding. The meeting was called to order with all repeating the Home Demonstration Club women's creed. The minutes of the last meeting was read by the secretary.

Mrs. Harold Higginson gave a report on the educational tour recently made by S. D. D. C. women and showed pictures that were taken on the tour.

Mrs. Florence Fincher won the thrift garment and Mrs. Gilbert Barwick won the prize during the recreational period. Secret pal gifts were exchanged during the recreational period also.

Mrs. Edward Chambliss, Route 2, Hope, was the new member. Mrs. Bearden was named as 17 members by the hostess. The meeting adjourned to meet in October with Mrs. Johnnie McCorkle.

single man, or the men you work with are single men, it is all right to date them, but if they are married men, hands off. They bode you no good, as they used to say in the old melodramas.

Third. Going to young men's apartments is something a decent girl does not do. A girl not only has to be good, but she has to look good. You might spend your time in the young man's apartment holding a prayer meeting, but you would never be able to convince the world of it. It would always believe the worst of you. So stay away, and keep your skirt clean.

Dear Miss Dix: My boy friend recently joined the Marines, and people are telling me I'm crazy to be true to him because he won't be faithful to me. He promised me he would always be true, no matter what happened. I have never had cause to distrust him, and we really love each other. Should I listen to these people?

Answer: If you trust your boy friend at home, there's no reason why you shouldn't show equal faith when he's away. It's true, boys away from home, whether in service or not, are exposed to more temptations than when they are safe beneath the family roof, but such things are part of life's experience, and resisting them serves only to strengthen character. You too may be tempted to go with other boys while your friend is away. Will you remain true in all circumstances? Of course you will and so will he. Tell your meddling friends to mind their own business.

Released by the Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Easy Going Young Casuals

Focus On..... Dark Suede $2.98

Slim little slipper that puts the spotlight on dark suede in the nicest way possible. Petal-like cutouts air your toes, a tiny bow ties a-top. Black or brown nusuede.

CASUAL

Easy going... that's the main thing you want... whether you're going to work or play or lounge around. These gay little sling casuals assure you of that. Comes in black suede, black or red smooth leather.

$3.98

Captivating Ways

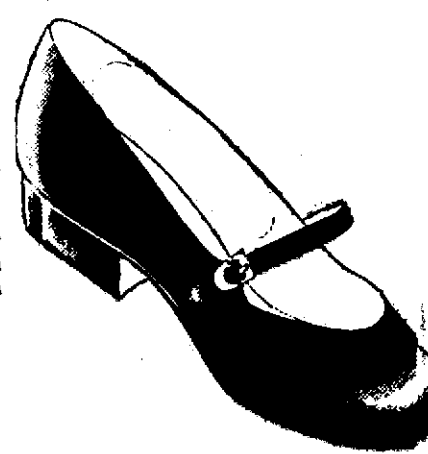

A sandal with captivating ways, versatile enough to suit your mood whether casual or dressy. Fashioned of curving bands and overcaps, open and airy. Comes in multi-toned simulated snakeskin, simulated snake in brown ombre tones. Only

$2.98

FLATS

No shortages here — of style, comfort or usefulness. Take a season's lease on this one-strap little shoe and you'll want to wear nothing else. Comes in black suede, smooth black or red leather.

$3.98

We Give and Redeem Eagle Stamps

Geo. W. Robison & Co.

The Leading Department Store
HOPE NASHVILLE

SAENGER

• FRI - SAT •

CARTOON & SERIAL

MIDNIGHT SHOW

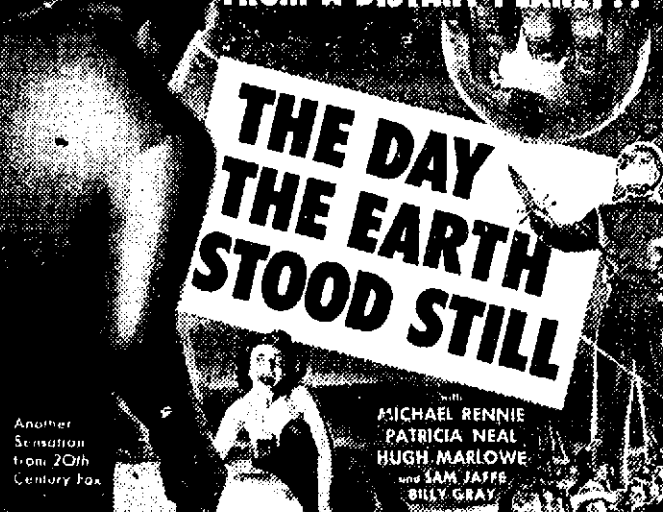

SATURDAY 11:00 P. M.

"THE MUMMIES GHOST"

BELA LUGOSI

• SUN. - MON. •

THE WORLD FACED WITH DESTRUCTION BY
STRANGE "MEN" AND DEMONIC MACHINES
FROM A DISTANT PLANET!!

PLUS: CANDID MIKE • LATE NEWS

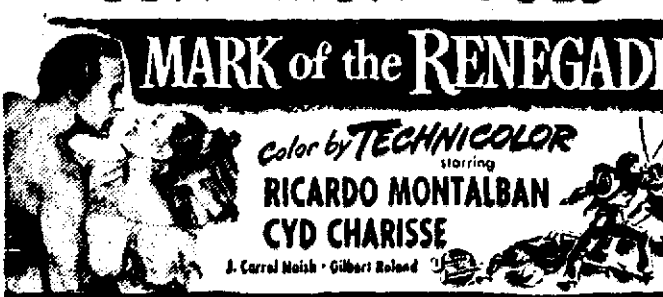

RIALTO

FRI - SAT

"FIGHTING STALLION" with BILL EDWARDS

"WEST OF THE BRAZOS" with LUCKY HAYDEN

SUN - MON - TUES

GO TO A MOVIE THEATRE TODAY!

IT'S MOVIE TIME U.S.A.

Celebrating the GOLDEN JUBILEE of the American Movie Theatre

Your family deserves Holsum TODAY!

It's about time you got the flavor you deserve in bread. Better-baked Holsum supplies flavor to delight your appetite. It's the biggest treat to come a woman's way in years. Your family deserves Holsum... today.

Plastic Wrapper

Pick up the new plastic-coated wrapper that keeps Holsum flavor fresher, costy no more.

Taste it!

Look Holsum

Buy Holsum

Holsum's better-baking brings home fresher flavor and aroma in bread such as you've never tasted before. Right now more and more people are enjoying a new experience, a pleasant Holsum surprise. You'll find it's too good to pass up!

CLASSIFIED

Ads Must Be In Office Day Before Publication

WANT AD RATES

ALL WANT ADS ARE PAID IN ADVANCE BUT ADS WILL BE ACCEPTED FOR THE TELEPHONE AND ACCOMMODATION ACCOUNTS ALLOWED WITH THE UNDERSTANDING THE ACCOUNT IS PAYABLE WHEN STATEMENT IS RENDERED.

Number of Words	One Day	Three Days	Six Days	One Month
1 to 10	.50	1.50	4.50	15.00
11 to 20	.75	2.25	6.75	22.50
21 to 30	1.00	3.00	9.00	30.00
31 to 40	1.25	3.75	11.25	37.50
41 to 50	1.50	4.50	13.50	45.00

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

One Time	Per inch
1 to 10	1.00
11 to 20	2.00
21 to 30	3.00

Rates quoted above are for consecutive insertions. Irregular or skip-date ads will take the average rate.

All daily classified advertising copy will be accepted until 5 p. m. for publication the following day.

The publisher reserves the right to refuse or edit all advertisements offering for publication to reject any objectionable advertising submitted.

Initials of one or more letters, groups or figures such as houses or telephone numbers count as one word.

The Hope Star will not be responsible for errors. Advertisers are urged to call our attention after FIRST insertion of ad and then for ONLY the ONE incorrect insertion.

PHONE 1268 - 1269

Hope Star

Star of Hope 1899; Press 1927
Established January 10, 1928

Published every weekday afternoon by William H. Washburn, Editor & Publisher
C. E. Palmer, President
C. E. Palmer, Secretary
C. E. Palmer, Treasurer
C. E. Palmer, Editor & Publisher

Entered as second class matter of the Post Office at Hope, Arkansas, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations

Subscription Rates (Payable in Advance)

By carrier in Hope and neighboring towns	Per week	Per year
	.25	13.00

By mail in Hempstead, Nevada, Los Angeles, Hayward, and Miller counties

One month	Three months	Six months	One year
.85	2.55	5.10	10.20

All other mail —
One month .85
Three months 2.55
Six months 5.10
One year 10.20

Mail Advertising Representatives
Arkansas Cities, Inc. 1602 Sterick
Arkansas Cities, Inc. 1602 Sterick
Arkansas Cities, Inc. 1602 Sterick

Member of the Associated Press
The Associated Press is authorized to use the name for publication of all the local news printed in this paper, as well as all AP news dispatches.

Wanted

BOYS in school interested in reading paper routes during afternoon. Leave name and address and telephone number at 1268 Star office.

EXCELLENT good corn. See J. V. Moore Jr. at Moore Bros.

Help Wanted

WOMEN and wool processors. Ideal working conditions. New equipment. Nelson-Huckins, Texarkana.

The first crossing of the Atlantic by air was in May, 1919 when an American hydroplane NC-4 sailed from Tampa, Fla., to Lisbon, Portugal, in 26 days and 15 hours.

FLOOR FURNACES
Wall Heaters, Hot Water Tanks, and Bath Fixtures sold and installed.

ROY WARREN
Phone 1268 or 143-J

WASHING MACHINES
Sewing machines just in. Free pickup and delivery. Phone 1268.

REFRIGERATION
Repair Service
Phone 1268

REMOVED FREE
Within 40 Miles
DEAD HORSES, COWS and CRIPPLES
Removal Service
Phone 1268

REMOVED FREE
Within 40 Miles
DEAD HORSES, COWS and CRIPPLES
Removal Service
Phone 1268

REMOVED FREE
Within 40 Miles
DEAD HORSES, COWS and CRIPPLES
Removal Service
Phone 1268

REMOVED FREE
Within 40 Miles
DEAD HORSES, COWS and CRIPPLES
Removal Service
Phone 1268

REMOVED FREE
Within 40 Miles
DEAD HORSES, COWS and CRIPPLES
Removal Service
Phone 1268

REMOVED FREE
Within 40 Miles
DEAD HORSES, COWS and CRIPPLES
Removal Service
Phone 1268

REMOVED FREE
Within 40 Miles
DEAD HORSES, COWS and CRIPPLES
Removal Service
Phone 1268

REMOVED FREE
Within 40 Miles
DEAD HORSES, COWS and CRIPPLES
Removal Service
Phone 1268

REMOVED FREE
Within 40 Miles
DEAD HORSES, COWS and CRIPPLES
Removal Service
Phone 1268

REMOVED FREE
Within 40 Miles
DEAD HORSES, COWS and CRIPPLES
Removal Service
Phone 1268

REMOVED FREE
Within 40 Miles
DEAD HORSES, COWS and CRIPPLES
Removal Service
Phone 1268

REMOVED FREE
Within 40 Miles
DEAD HORSES, COWS and CRIPPLES
Removal Service
Phone 1268

REMOVED FREE
Within 40 Miles
DEAD HORSES, COWS and CRIPPLES
Removal Service
Phone 1268

For Sale

ELECTROLUX Cleaners Sales and Services parts for all odd Electrolux. Marvin P. Mann, 1402 15th Street, Arkadelphia, Arkansas. Phone 928-W.

B.4-1mo.

121 BALE Hay leopards and sprays. A. Weatherford, Rt. 1, Spring Hill.

STRAWBERRY plants. Immediate delivery. Phone 1067 M or see A. Rogers.

CABBAGE and Collard plants. Month Seed Store.

ONE four piece eighteenth century mahogany bed room suit. Mattress and springs, one pair of brass pin up lamps and one 5 drawer chest. Phone 1210.

ONE nicely arranged 2 room house only. Will trade for cattle. Water and lights. Phone 1112-W.

PLENTY of Hay. Thos. Hamilton's Grocery and Market, Hope, Ark.

THE TOWN GRILL

Is at its best. Newly decorated, efficient cook staff, fully stocked. Established business.

SEE BROWN

Stamps, Arkansas.

The Cottage

Priced right for Quick Sale. Phone 1479-J.

For Sale or Trade

FARMAIL, tractor and all equipment. Brand new. See Mr. J. C. Goodwin, Bodeaux, Ark.

For Rent

4 room, very desirable unfurnished apartment to couple only. Close in. 207 Shover Street. Phone 1482-W.

2 ROOM furnished apartment. Utilities paid. 102 South Washington. Phone 300-H.

APARTMENTS for Rent. Unfurnished. TWIN Oaks, 13th and Elm, 3 rooms and bath, $30.

HOUSTON, 801 East Third, 3 and 4 rooms and bath, $35 and $40.

APARTMENTS for Rent. Furnished. BROOKS Apts., No. Main and Ave. 11, 3 rooms, $35.

POSTER-ELLIS REALTY COMPANY, 108 E. 2nd. Phone 131.

2 APARTMENTS two blocks from business district. 1 furnished apartment and one three room apartment unfurnished on first floor. Call 400-A or see at 220 North Louisiana.

Notice

WHEN you need a veterinarian contact Dr. H. D. Lohrer at 117 North Hazel. Phone 067.

FOR Lawn Mower and Stove repairs. All models, makes or kind. Call Oscar the fix-it. Phone 105. 1010 West Ave. B. T. B. Perwick, SR.

SOCIETIES and Lodges

W.O.W. meets Thursday 8 p.m. Visiting Sovereigns welcome. Ray Turner Council Commander Leo Hartsfield Financial Secretary.

I. O. O. F. Anchor Lodge No. 178. Meets over Monday night 7:30 p.m. at 1155 South Elm.

Services Offered

TOM'S radio service, 1402 West Avenue B.

A native of Iowa is called a Hawkeye.

PRINTING

Phone 1268-1269
A representative Will Call Complete Printing Service

Hope Star

Cecil Johnson, Printer

ANY Dry Cleaning TODAY?

Now is the time to get out those winter suits, topcoats, dresses, and any winter clothes you have. Just call us and they will be Expertly Cleaned and Pressed the Way You Want Them.

One Call Does It All
Phone 164
HOPE STEAM Laundry & Dry Cleaners 405 & WALNUT

REMOVED FREE
Within 40 Miles
DEAD HORSES, COWS and CRIPPLES
Removal Service
Phone 1268

REMOVED FREE
Within 40 Miles
DEAD HORSES, COWS and CRIPPLES
Removal Service
Phone 1268

REMOVED FREE
Within 40 Miles
DEAD HORSES, COWS and CRIPPLES
Removal Service
Phone 1268

REMOVED FREE
Within 40 Miles
DEAD HORSES, COWS and CRIPPLES
Removal Service
Phone 1268

REMOVED FREE
Within 40 Miles
DEAD HORSES, COWS and CRIPPLES
Removal Service
Phone 1268

REMOVED FREE
Within 40 Miles
DEAD HORSES, COWS and CRIPPLES
Removal Service
Phone 1268

NOYSURVIVORS

BY WILL HENRY

DISTRIBUTED BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: John Clayton, a former civilian agent, has "gone Indian" and taken to live with the Indians of the North American continent. He has been in the North American continent for a long time. He has been in the North American continent for a long time. He has been in the North American continent for a long time.

SLATEMEYER, having no reason to expect such immediate pursuit as was already upon him, would travel at an accelerated rate, only a moderate speed-up of the ground-covering, shuffle-foot of the Indian pony.

Crazy Horse would travel faster, probably at a canter, but knowing his prey was within reach would raise his pace to overtake Slate Meyer at dawn, always the Indians favored attack hour.

I, holding a rolling gallop through the night, would outdistance the Sioux, coming up to Slate Meyer an hour ahead of both dawn and the Ogla.

These were assumptions, the kind any fighting man makes daily. If he's right, he wins. If he's wrong, he doesn't care. The dead never do. What I meant to do when I came up with my enemy I didn't know. The hour itself would have to decide that.

I tightened my grip on the bridle leathers of Hussien's hackamore, sticking his gait. Under my clamping thighs the flow and rhythm of his gallop felt perfect in reach and timing. No fling yet. The miles rolled endlessly back into the night.

Slate Meyer's way led down a long shallow valley, a well-traveled Indian track familiar to me, reaching from the Cheyenne to the White River. When I had gone as far down this as I felt I could without turning over Crazy Horse's camp in the dark I slowed Hussien, swinging him wide of the valley trail, heading for the foothills to the left. He was trembling under me, very tired now.

Slated Meyer, having no reason to expect such immediate pursuit as was already upon him, would travel at an accelerated rate, only a moderate speed-up of the ground-covering, shuffle-foot of the Indian pony.

Crazy Horse would travel faster, probably at a canter, but knowing his prey was within reach would raise his pace to overtake Slate Meyer at dawn, always the Indians favored attack hour.

I, holding a rolling gallop through the night, would outdistance the Sioux, coming up to Slate Meyer an hour ahead of both dawn and the Ogla.

These were assumptions, the kind any fighting man makes daily. If he's right, he wins. If he's wrong, he doesn't care. The dead never do. What I meant to do when I came up with my enemy I didn't know. The hour itself would have to decide that.

I tightened my grip on the bridle leathers of Hussien's hackamore, sticking his gait. Under my clamping thighs the flow and rhythm of his gallop felt perfect in reach and timing. No fling yet. The miles rolled endlessly back into the night.

Slate Meyer's way led down a long shallow valley, a well-traveled Indian track familiar to me, reaching from the Cheyenne to the White River. When I had gone as far down this as I felt I could without turning over Crazy Horse's camp in the dark I slowed Hussien, swinging him wide of the valley trail, heading for the foothills to the left. He was trembling under me, very tired now.

Slated Meyer, having no reason to expect such immediate pursuit as was already upon him, would travel at an accelerated rate, only a moderate speed-up of the ground-covering, shuffle-foot of the Indian pony.

Crazy Horse would travel faster, probably at a canter, but knowing his prey was within reach would raise his pace to overtake Slate Meyer at dawn, always the Indians favored attack hour.

I, holding a rolling gallop through the night, would outdistance the Sioux, coming up to Slate Meyer an hour ahead of both dawn and the Ogla.

These were assumptions, the kind any fighting man makes daily. If he's right, he wins. If he's wrong, he doesn't care. The dead never do. What I meant to do when I came up with my enemy I didn't know. The hour itself would have to decide that.

I tightened my grip on the bridle leathers of Hussien's hackamore, sticking his gait. Under my clamping thighs the flow and rhythm of his gallop felt perfect in reach and timing. No fling yet. The miles rolled endlessly back into the night.

Slate Meyer's way led down a long shallow valley, a well-traveled Indian track familiar to me, reaching from the Cheyenne to the White River. When I had gone as far down this as I felt I could without turning over Crazy Horse's camp in the dark I slowed Hussien, swinging him wide of the valley trail, heading for the foothills to the left. He was trembling under me, very tired now.

Slated Meyer, having no reason to expect such immediate pursuit as was already upon him, would travel at an accelerated rate, only a moderate speed-up of the ground-covering, shuffle-foot of the Indian pony.

Crazy Horse would travel faster, probably at a canter, but knowing his prey was within reach would raise his pace to overtake Slate Meyer at dawn, always the Indians favored attack hour.

I, holding a rolling gallop through the night, would outdistance the Sioux, coming up to Slate Meyer an hour ahead of both dawn and the Ogla.

These were assumptions, the kind any fighting man makes daily. If he's right, he wins. If he's wrong, he doesn't care. The dead never do. What I meant to do when I came up with my enemy I didn't know. The hour itself would have to decide that.

I tightened my grip on the bridle leathers of Hussien's hackamore, sticking his gait. Under my clamping thighs the flow and rhythm of his gallop felt perfect in reach and timing. No fling yet. The miles rolled endlessly back into the night.

Slate Meyer's way led down a long shallow valley, a well-traveled Indian track familiar to me, reaching from the Cheyenne to the White River. When I had gone as far down this as I felt I could without turning over Crazy Horse's camp in the dark I slowed Hussien, swinging him wide of the valley trail, heading for the foothills to the left. He was trembling under me, very tired now.

Slated Meyer, having no reason to expect such immediate pursuit as was already upon him, would travel at an accelerated rate, only a moderate speed-up of the ground-covering, shuffle-foot of the Indian pony.

Crazy Horse would travel faster, probably at a canter, but knowing his prey was within reach would raise his pace to overtake Slate Meyer at dawn, always the Indians favored attack hour.

I, holding a rolling gallop through the night, would outdistance the Sioux, coming up to Slate Meyer an hour ahead of both dawn and the Ogla.

These were assumptions, the kind any fighting man makes daily. If he's right, he wins. If he's wrong, he doesn't care. The dead never do. What I meant to do when I came up with my enemy I didn't know. The hour itself would have to decide that.

I tightened my grip on the bridle leathers of Hussien's hackamore, sticking his gait. Under my clamping thighs the flow and rhythm of his gallop felt perfect in reach and timing. No fling yet. The miles rolled endlessly back into the night.

Slate Meyer's way led down a long shallow valley, a well-traveled Indian track familiar to me, reaching from the Cheyenne to the White River. When I had gone as far down this as I felt I could without turning over Crazy Horse's camp in the dark I slowed Hussien, swinging him wide of the valley trail, heading for the foothills to the left. He was trembling under me, very tired now.

Slated Meyer, having no reason to expect such immediate pursuit as was already upon him, would travel at an accelerated rate, only a moderate speed-up of the ground-covering, shuffle-foot of the Indian pony.

Crazy Horse would travel faster, probably at a canter, but knowing his prey was within reach would raise his pace to overtake Slate Meyer at dawn, always the Indians favored attack hour.

I, holding a rolling gallop through the night, would outdistance the Sioux, coming up to Slate Meyer an hour ahead of both dawn and the Ogla.

These were assumptions, the kind any fighting man makes daily. If he's right, he wins. If he's wrong, he doesn't care. The dead never do. What I meant to do when I came up with my enemy I didn't know. The hour itself would have to decide that.

I tightened my grip on the bridle leathers of Hussien's hackamore, sticking his gait. Under my clamping thighs the flow and rhythm of his gallop felt perfect in reach and timing. No fling yet. The miles rolled endlessly back into the night.

Slate Meyer's way led down a long shallow valley, a well-traveled Indian track familiar to me, reaching from the Cheyenne to the White River. When I had gone as far down this as I felt I could without turning over Crazy Horse's camp in the dark I slowed Hussien, swinging him wide of the valley trail, heading for the foothills to the left. He was trembling under me, very tired now.

Slated Meyer, having no reason to expect such immediate pursuit as was already upon him, would travel at an accelerated rate, only a moderate speed-up of the ground-covering, shuffle-foot of the Indian pony.

Crazy Horse would travel faster, probably at a canter, but knowing his prey was within reach would raise his pace to overtake Slate Meyer at dawn, always the Indians favored attack hour.

I, holding a rolling gallop through the night, would outdistance the Sioux, coming up to Slate Meyer an hour ahead of both dawn and the Ogla.

These were assumptions, the kind any fighting man makes daily. If he's right, he wins. If he's wrong, he doesn't care. The dead never do. What I meant to do when I came up with my enemy I didn't know. The hour itself would have to decide that.

I tightened my grip on the bridle leathers of Hussien's hackamore, sticking his gait. Under my clamping thighs the flow and rhythm of his gallop felt perfect in reach and timing. No fling yet. The miles rolled endlessly back into the night.

Slate Meyer's way led down a long shallow valley, a well-traveled Indian track familiar to me, reaching from the Cheyenne to the White River. When I had gone as far down this as I felt I could without turning over Crazy Horse's camp in the dark I slowed Hussien, swinging him wide of the valley trail, heading for the foothills to the left. He was trembling under me, very tired now.

Slated Meyer, having no reason to expect such immediate pursuit as was already upon him, would travel at an accelerated rate, only a moderate speed-up of the ground-covering, shuffle-foot of the Indian pony.

Crazy Horse would travel faster, probably at a canter, but knowing his prey was within reach would raise his pace to overtake Slate Meyer at dawn, always the Indians favored attack hour.

I, holding a rolling gallop through the night, would outdistance the Sioux, coming up to Slate Meyer an hour ahead of both dawn and the Ogla.

These were assumptions, the kind any fighting man makes daily. If he's right, he wins. If he's wrong, he doesn't care. The dead never do. What I meant to do when I came up with my enemy I didn't know. The hour itself would have to decide that.

I tightened my grip on the bridle leathers of Hussien's hackamore, sticking his gait. Under my clamping thighs the flow and rhythm of his gallop felt perfect in reach and timing. No fling yet. The miles rolled endlessly back into the night.

Slate Meyer's way led down a long shallow valley, a well-traveled Indian track familiar to me, reaching from the Cheyenne to the White River. When I had gone as far down this as I felt I could without turning over Crazy Horse's camp in the dark I slowed Hussien, swinging him wide of the valley trail, heading for the foothills to the left. He was trembling under me, very tired now.

Slated Meyer, having no reason to expect such immediate pursuit as was already upon him, would travel at an accelerated rate, only a moderate speed-up of the ground-covering, shuffle-foot of the Indian pony.

HOPE STAR, HOPE, ARKANSAS

DISTRIBUTED BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

I hoped he would get a fair blow while we walked our way around where I supposed the Sioux camp to be, this respite being out of no consideration for him but due to my respect of the fact an Indian can ground-clear a running horse for a good two miles.

AS we padded through the thick dust of the hillside I got the first satisfaction in days. Off to my right and directly below us the querulous whistling of ponies carried up on the night air. My in-the-dark computations hadn't mislead by 400 yards.

Once around the Sioux camp I put Hussien back on his gait. He was running unevenly with probability not more than an hour's effort left in him. His breath came scraping into his lungs metallically. Under my knees the exhausted hammering of his heart was ragged and heavy.

Pity came thick in my throat. I loved this vicious horse not knowing, until this night, how well. But now as he ran dying under me, his whole body faltering with every stride, I knew. Leaning far over his outstretched neck I buried my head in the caged back of his forelock. My mouth clung to his forehead as if it were a mother's whisper.

"HOPE, you ugly crowbat. Do you know I love you? Do you know I am killing you? Hic-ye, Easy."

Slaggered brokenly, then finding his stride, he managed a racking whicker. His neck tensed at the spot my face lay against it. He was wet not from lather alone.

Three miles more and I eased him down and left him. He stood spraddled-legged, head to the ground, gaunt flanks whipping in behind, gaunt ribs with every gulping breath. His eyes protruded fixed and glazed, his tongue hung swollen and lifeless between the long yellow teeth. Thin blood ran in tiny streams from the bell-flare of his nostrils. As I turned to leave him he raised his head, looking for me, then staggered a step or two as though to follow. He moved directly away from me. He was still alive.

FINDING 30 Crow Indians and a renegade white gunman in three miles of pitch-black prairie was no easy chore but I did what I could. I began quartering the wind from a spot I considered to be well to the northeast of their camp. Luck was with me, the fresh morning air shortly bringing what I sought—the pungency of their pony herd.

I worked upward to a point I thought would be about 100 yards from the horses. Here I hoked up, for an Indian will always sleep between his horses and his enemies and I had no desire to find myself wading knee-deep in Crows.

In an hour a ghost-glow of light appeared. Fifteen minutes more and the true dawn would start fading the night. In 20 the camp would come alive.

In the uncertain gloom, not two shades off real darkness, I could make out the black lumps of sleeping men all about me. These lay singly, Indian fashion.

The wind and luck held in my direction. Not 10 paces away, sheltered from the main group by a clump of elder bush, lay a double shadow. From the larger shadow came the stertorous breathing of a man in deep sleep, from the other no sound at all. The smaller shadow, then, was awake. It was Star.

It seems unreal to me now, as it did then. I went over that intervening 10 yards as noiselessly as a hawk's shade over hard rock. The whites of Star's eyes rolled up at his looming figure. She had no way of knowing I was crawling in at her out of the black prairie, but Indian-wise, made no outcry or motion. She was between her guard and me, leaving no way to get at him save over her.

(To Be Continued)

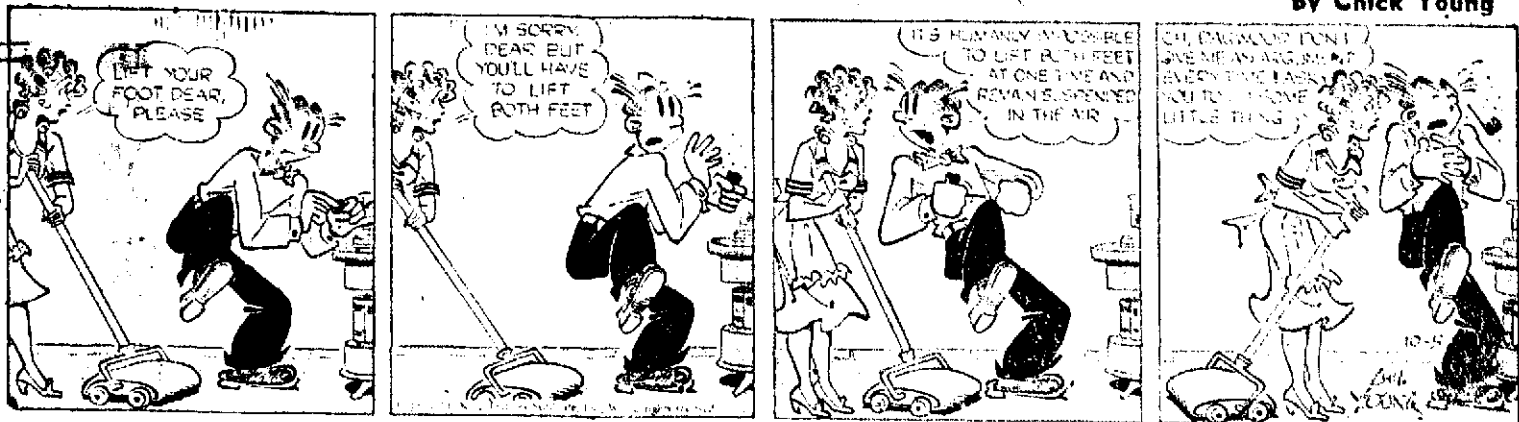

Ford, Douglas Leading Playoff

Kansas City, Oct. 5 (AP)—Such players as Doug Ford and Dave Douglas are making things mighty uncomfortable in the Kansas City Open Golf tournament for the hotshots seeking the three remaining U. S. Ryder cup berths.

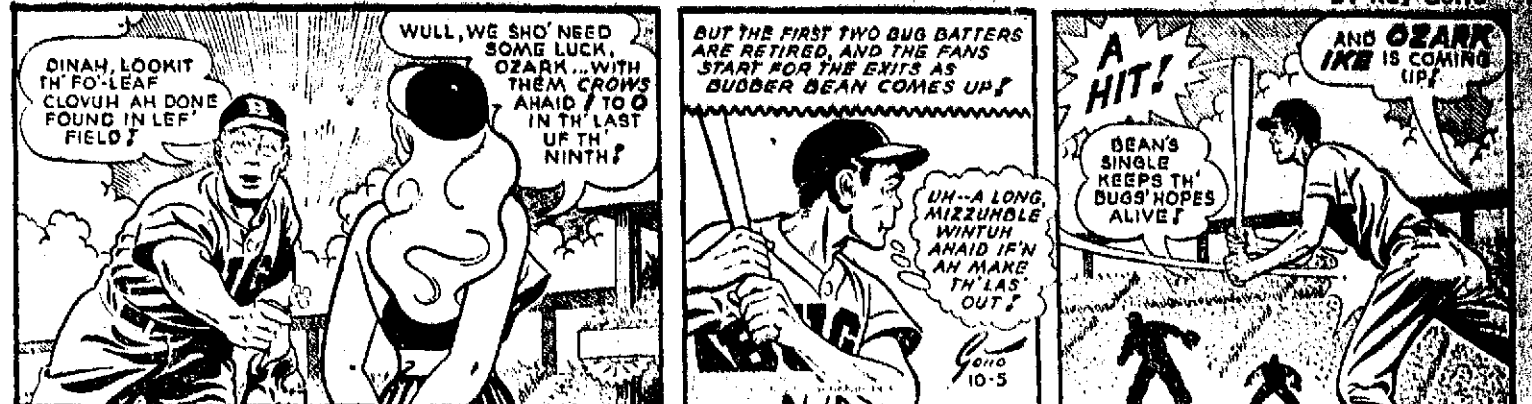

Neither Ford, a two-year man in pro golf from Harrison, N. Y., nor Douglas, of Newark, N. J., who hasn't won a major tournament since the 1949 Texas Open, are in the running for the team that meets the British squad at Pinehurst, N. C., Nov. 2-4.

But Ford had a 61 over the 6,600 yard par 72 Milburn Country club course to set the first round pace yesterday, and Douglas was only two strokes away at 60.

BLONDIE

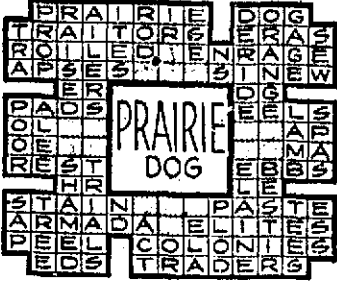

OZARK IKE

Ruminant

Answer to Previous Puzzle

- HORIZONTAL
- 1 Depicted
 - 2 Meat dish
 - 3 Mineral rock
 - 4 Measure (ab.)
 - 5 Gambling game
 - 6 Seth's son
 - 7 Biblical city
 - 8 Let it stand
 - 9 Pronoun
 - 10 Insect
 - 11 Anchored
 - 12 Smooths
 - 17 Thoroughfare (ab.)
 - 20 Fastest
 - 21 Raises
 - 24 Chemical compound
 - 26 Place within
 - 33 Best
 - 34 Awn
 - 36 Vegetables
 - 37 Goal
 - 42 Repose
 - 43 Either
 - 44 Preface (ab.)
 - 45 Particle
 - 46 Ruler (suffix)
 - 49 Dry
 - 51 Falsehood
 - 53 Mixed type
 - 55 Mount (ab.)
- VERTICAL
- 1 Strong winds
 - 2 Meat dish
 - 3 Mineral rock
 - 4 Measure (ab.)
 - 5 Gambling game
 - 6 Seth's son
 - 7 Biblical city
 - 8 Let it stand
 - 9 Pronoun
 - 10 Insect
 - 11 Anchored
 - 12 Smooths
 - 17 Thoroughfare (ab.)
 - 20 Fastest
 - 21 Raises
 - 24 Chemical compound
 - 26 Place within
 - 33 Best
 - 34 Awn
 - 36 Vegetables
 - 37 Goal
 - 42 Repose
 - 43 Either
 - 44 Preface (ab.)
 - 45 Particle
 - 46 Ruler (suffix)
 - 49 Dry
 - 51 Falsehood
 - 53 Mixed type
 - 55 Mount (ab.)

OUT OUR WAY

By J. R. Williams

VIC FLINT

By Michael O'Malley and Ralph Lane

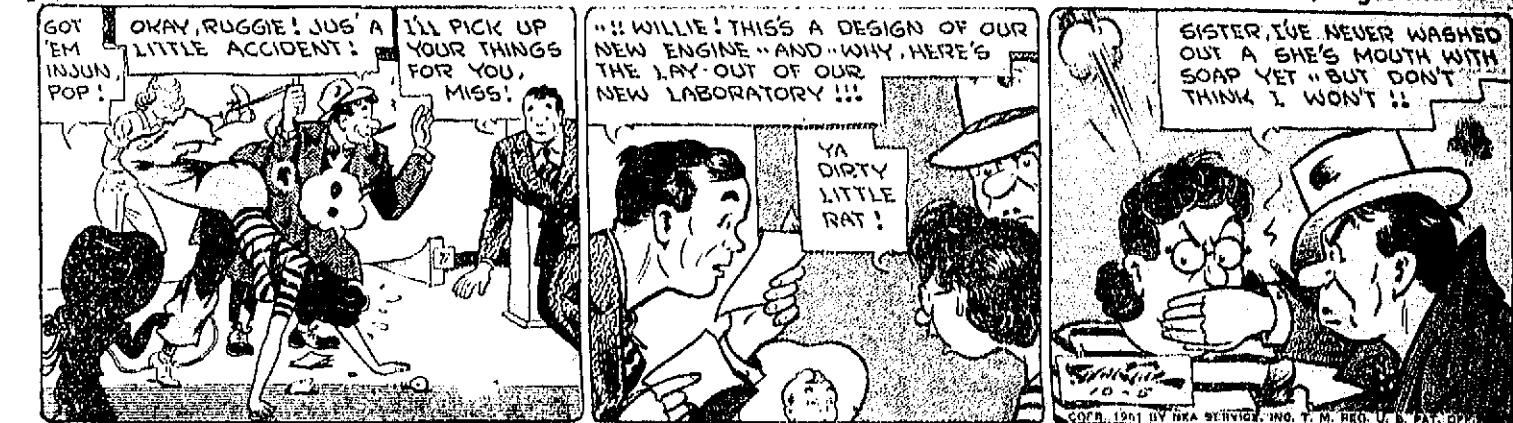

WASH TUBBS

By Leslie Turner

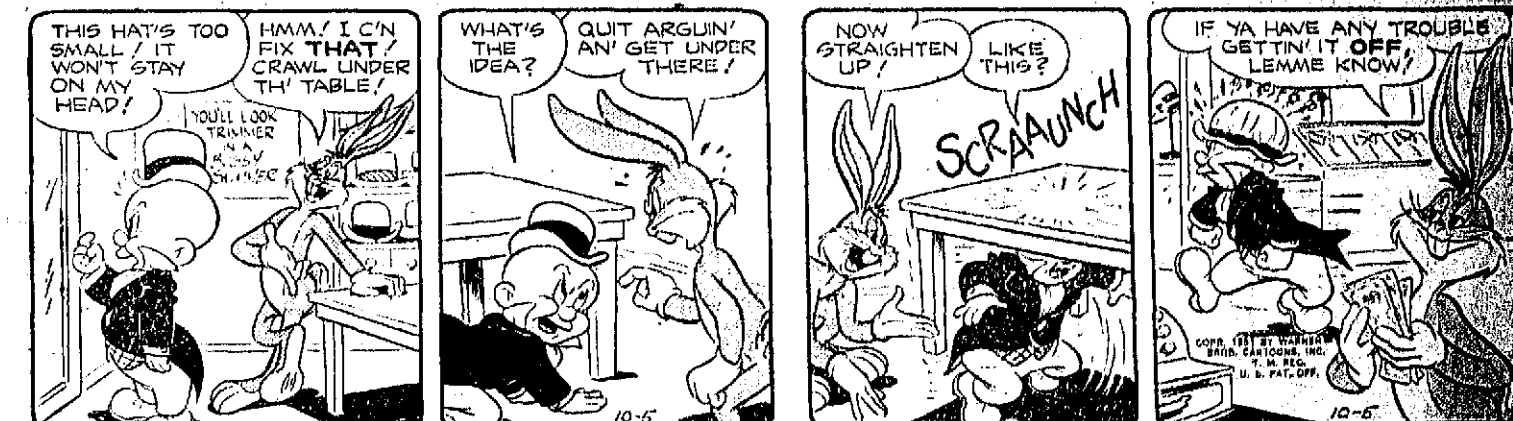

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

By Edgar Martin

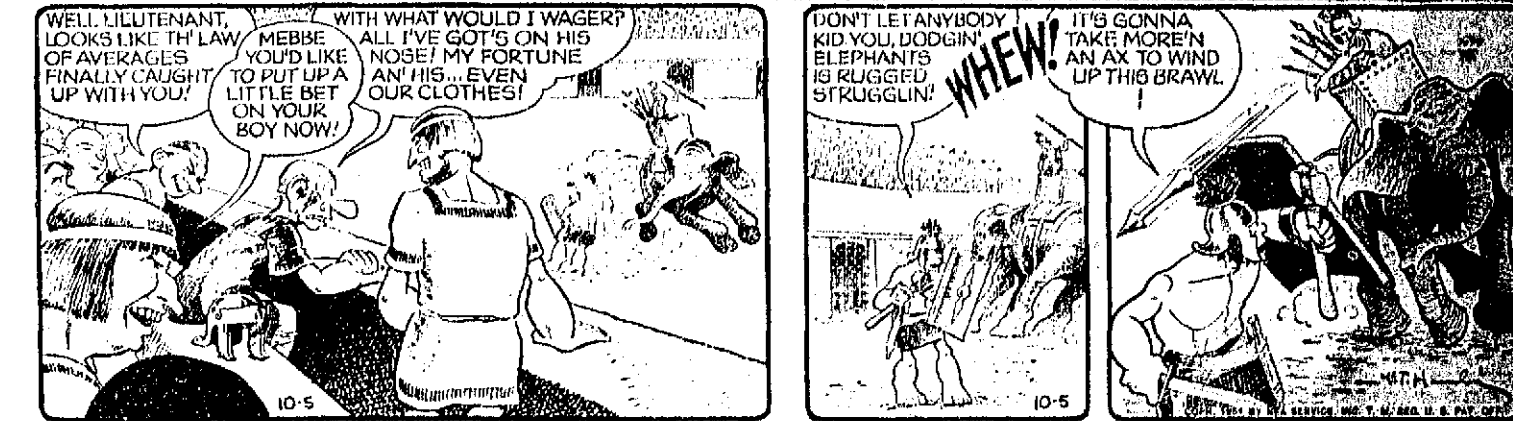

BUGS BUNNY

ALLEY OOP

By V. T. Hamill

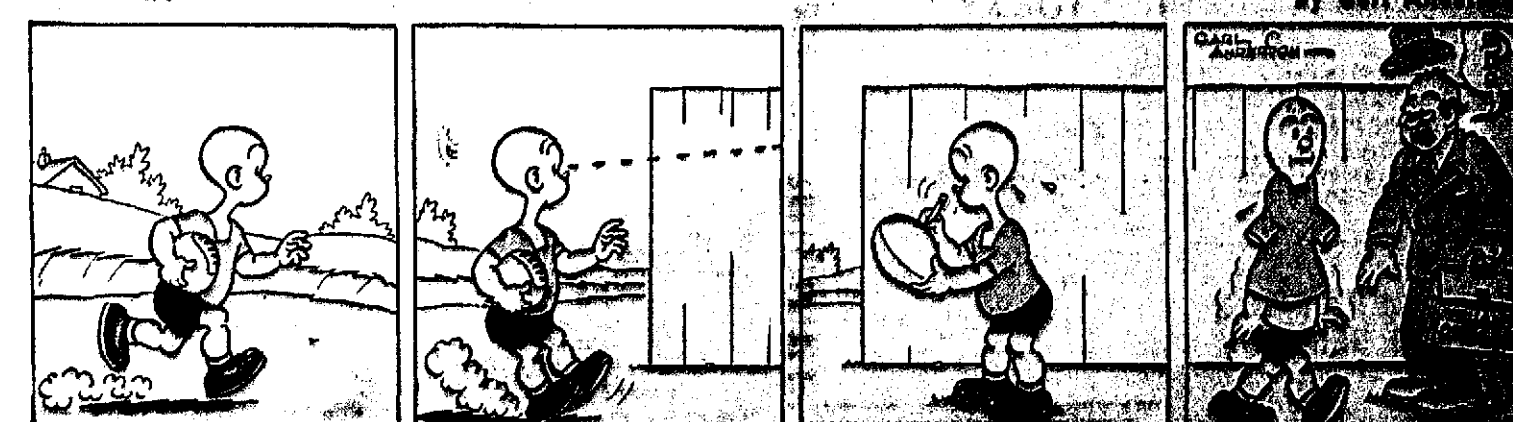

PRISCILLA'S POP

HENRY

By Carl Anderson

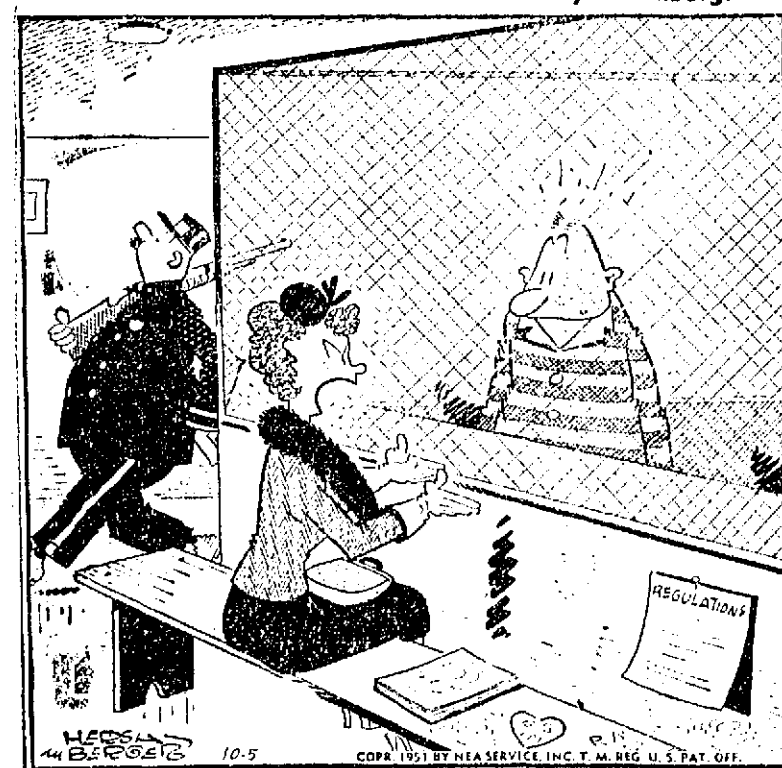

CARNIVAL

By Dick Turner

FUNNY BUSINESS

By Hershberger

"And I had just bragged to mother how thrifty you were by printing your own money!"

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

By Blosser

SIDE GLANCES

By Galbraith

News of the CHURCHES

OUR LADY OF GOOD HOPE Catholic Church

Father A. G. Dunleavy, Pastor
October, Month of the Holy Rosary.
October 7, 21st Sunday after Pentecost.
Mass at 10:30 a.m.
Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament immediately following mass.

ST. MARK'S EPISCOPAL

Rev. Charles T. Chambers Jr., Priest-in-charge
Twentieth Sunday after Trinity.
9:45 a.m. Sunday School.
8:45 p.m. Choir practice.
7:30 p.m. Evening Worship.
Tuesday
7:30 p.m. Class on the ways and teachings of the church.

Wednesday
7:30 a.m. Holy Communion.
8 p.m. Those interested in sewing for the Bazaar will meet at the Rectory.

East Second Street

Rev. L. T. Lawrence, minister
10 a.m. Sunday School
James H. Miller, Superintendent
Miss Ruth Lewis, Secretary-Treasurer
The Men's Bible Class will meet in the church sanctuary. The lesson "Abraham, A Pioneer for God" will be taught by Mr. Charles Armistead.
10:55 a.m. Morning Worship.
World wide communion Sunday.
There will be a brief communion.

meditation "Three Things Common To All Men" by the minister. The choir, under the direction of Mrs. R. L. Gasnell, will sing an anthem from "The Glory of the Cross" by Rosemary Hadler.

5 p.m. Vesper Service
Sermon by the minister "The Glory Of Serving Christ."
A nursery is provided for children during both the morning and Vesper Service.

6 p.m. P. Y. F.
The program will be a religious film "The Bible On The Table".
Supper will be furnished.

Monday
The Deacons will have a meeting Monday night at the church at 7:30. The Circles of the Women of the Church will meet as follows:

Circle 1, Mrs. A. E. Stonequist, chairman, will meet at the home of Mrs. Mae Duffie at 2:30.
Circle 2, Mrs. Jim McKenzie, chairman, will meet at the home of Mrs. Fred Ellis at 2:30.
Circle 3, Mrs. Theo Long, chairman, will meet at the home of Mrs. Tom McLarty at 2:30.
Circle 4, Mrs. Lester Hobbs, chairman, will meet at the home of Mrs. Thell Joplin at 7:30.

Tuesday
7 p.m. Choir Practice
Wednesday
7:30 p.m. Mid-week service.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

West Second at Pine
Rev. Virgil D. Keeley, Pastor
Church School 9:45 a.m.
John P. Vesey will teach the "Century Bible Class."

Morning Worship 10:55
Solo: "Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled" Mrs. Edwin Russell.
Sermon "Renewing our Loyalties".
World Wide Communion Service.

Senior MYF 5:30 p.m.
Intermediate MYF 5:30 p.m.
Evening Worship 7 p.m. Sermon "The Tenderness of God" minister.
There will be a "Church visit" Visitation Program of Methodist Women Monday afternoon, beginning in the homes at 2:30 o'clock with Broadcast by Mrs. W. B. Landrum of New York City, field worker of the WSCS over KXAR at 3 p.m. closing with a special program at the church at 3:30.
The Wesleyan Service Guild will have an "Anniversary Party" in the home of Mrs. Lawrence Martin Monday evening at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Eugene Jones will be leader of the program.

First Pentecostal Church
Fourth and Ferguson Streets
Rev. H. P. Hudspeth, Pastor
There will be a special service on Saturday night, Oct. 6. Rev. N. J. Scott of Trenton, Tenn. will be the principal speaker. Rev. Scott will also be with us this Sunday and will be bringing the message Sunday morning and Sunday evening. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

8-8:15 a.m. Pentecostal Hour on KXAR.
9:45 Sunday School
C. J. Rowe, Supt.

11 Morning Worship
Rev. Scott will bring the message.
6:30 p.m. Young People's service. Mrs. H. P. Hudspeth, leader.

Children's Church. Mrs. Pauline Hudson in charge.
7:45 p.m. Evangelistic Services.
Rev. Scott will bring the message.

Tuesday
2 p.m. Ladies Prayer Meeting.
Wednesday
7:45 p.m. Prayer and Bible Study.

HOPE GOSPEL TABERNACLE
O. M. Montgomery, Pastor
Sunday School 9:45 a.m. Guy E. Basye, superintendent.
Radio Bible class 10 a.m. O. M. Montgomery, teacher, over KXAR.

Morning Worship Service 11 a.m.
Sermon by Pastor.
Junior and Senior Christ's Ambassadors services 6:15.
Evangelistic Service 7:30 p. m.
Sermon by Evangelist Willie C. DeMerchant.

Monday
Christian Service Brigade 7:30.
Tuesday
Special meeting night for all Sunday School teachers and workers 7.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

Walnut Street
A. T. Oliver, Minister
9:45 a.m. Bible Study
11 a.m. Preaching.
11:45 a.m. Communion.
6 p.m. Young People's Bible study
7 p.m. Evening Worship.
Tuesday
2 p.m. Ladies Bible Study.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

S. A. Whitlow, Pastor
Monday
4 p.m. Sunbeams
4 p.m. Junior G.A. will meet at the church for initiation and election of officers.

4:15 Intermediate G. A.
Wednesday
6:55 Sunday School Officer and Teachers' meeting.

7:35 Fellowship Hour, the mid-week worship for the whole family.
8:30 p.m. Choir Rehearsal.

Thursday
10 a.m. Hope Association meeting, Beech Street Baptist Church, Texarkana.

GARRETT MEMORIAL BAPTIST

Eld. Elbert O'Steen, Pastor
Rock of Ages Broadcast 9 to 9:30 from Church Auditorium over KXAR.
Sunday School 10 o'clock. Mr. Grady Hairston, S. S. Superintendent.

Morning Worship 11 a.m.
6:30 p.m. B.T.S.
7:30 p.m. Evening Worship.

Wednesday

7 p.m. Teachers meeting in charge of Mr. Guy Watkins.
7:30 Prayer meeting conducted by Mr. Travis Vann.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Wm. P. Hardegger, Minister
9:45 Sunday School. We have classes for all ages.

10:50 Morning Worship, Communion and Sermon. The special music will be an anthem by the choir, "The Ninety and Nine."

6 Social hour, refreshments and lesson for the Christian Youth Fellowship.

7 Youth Choir rehearsal.
7:30 Evening worship, communion and Sermon. The special music will be by the combined youth and adult choirs, "The Rock That Is Higher Than I".

Monday
3 The Christian Women's Fellowship will meet in the church parlor for its regular business and missionary meeting.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

Fifth and Grady
Rob't G. Cook, Evangelist
9:45 a.m. Bible Study
10:45 Sermon
11:40 Lord's Supper.
6:30 p.m. Young Peoples Class.
7:30 Evening Worship

Tuesday
2:30 p.m. Ladies Bible Class
Wednesday
7:30 Mid-week services.

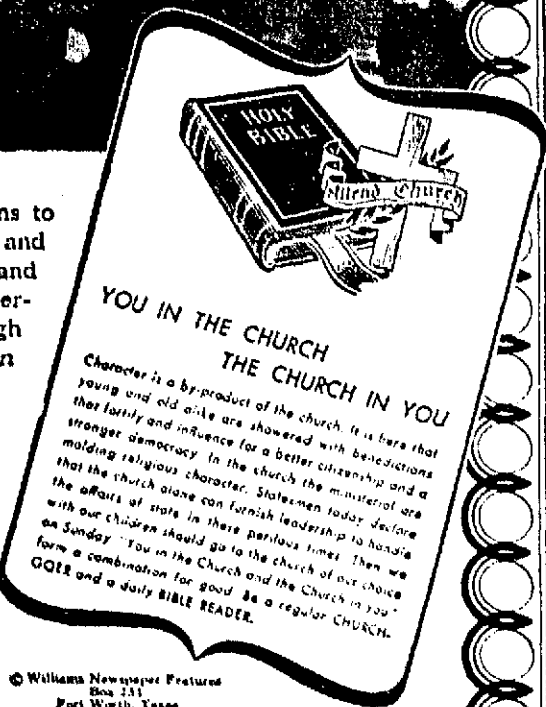

This Church Page Is Published Weekly With the Hope that More People Will Go to Church.

SCHOOL DAYS AGAIN

The time has again come for all Teachers and all true Americans to come to the aid of God and Country. School days are here! Young and open minds assemble on playgrounds and in class rooms...men and women are in the making. Dear Teacher, your responsibility is terrifying. You have God to honor and your country to save through your own class room. "A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver." (Proverbs 25:11)

Eager and learning minds must be properly directed. In the Book of Books the "Great Teacher" gives direction toward the life of goodness and wisdom. The stories of Joseph, the birth of Jesus and the never-to-be-forgotten parables are rich in lessons of wisdom and morality. Let them reflect on the Proverbs of Solomon, and let them sing the songs of David. The lessons of Isaiah, Jeremiah and Paul, and the Sermon on the Mount offer a moral and spiritual constitution for living. Along with lessons in "reading and writing and arithmetic," they need lessons in how to live God's way...it's School Days Again.

© Williams Newspaper Features
Box 111
Fort Worth, Texas

Sponsored By Local Business Firms Who Believe We Should Attend Religious Services Regularly.

W. Shanhouse Sons, Inc.

Citizens National Bank

Hope Basket Co.

Saenger & Rialto Theatres

William M. Duckett

Bruner-Ivory Handle Co.

The Greening Insurance Agency and Realty Co.

Rephan's Dept. Store
Fred Robertson, Mgr.

Norman Moore
Distributor Cities Service Products

Owen's Dept. Stores
"We Clothe the Family for Less"

Gunter Lumber Co.

B. R. Hamm Motor Co.

Hope Flooring & Lumber Co.

Louisiana Nevada Transit Co.

Graydon Anthony Lumber Co.

The First National Bank

James & Moore Cleaners

Crescent Drug Store

E. J. Whitman
Distributor Gulf Refining Co. Products

Haynes BROS.

MONEY SAVING VALUES IN WORK CLOTHES

SMALL GROUP OF
GENUINE CRAMERTON
PANTS
TYPE 1 — FIRST QUALITY
Not all sizes in this group

$3.49

ROUND HOUSE
OVERALLS
8 OZ. SANFORIZED

$2.89

THE ONLY GENUINE
LEVI'S
Made by Levi Strauss Co.

$3.75

MEN'S VAT DYED —
SANFORIZED — KHAKI
SHIRTS

TWO POCKETS WITH FLAPS
Sizes 14 - 14½ - 15 - 15½ - 16½

$1.98

BLUE CHAMBRAY
SHIRTS
TWO BUTTON POCKETS

$1.19

BLUE DENIM
SHIRTS
Western Style — Gripper Buttons

$2.98